

Having a parent in prison is hard because people might not understand and might not know what to say.

Jo, 11